

Policy Regarding Participation by Recruiting Firms and Third-Party Employers with the Career Development Center, Southern Illinois University Carbondale

Below are the terms of agreement to which recruiting firms and/or third-party employers (TPEs) must agree in order to participate in the online job posting system hosted by Southern Illinois University Carbondale's (SIUC) Career Development Center office. SIUC's Career Development Center uses Handshake for online job listings. The system is accessed through our website, www.careerdevelopment.siu.edu.

Upon return of this signed statement, access to SIUC's online recruiting system may be granted to the requesting recruiting firm/third party employer, allowing recruiting firms to post their own positions on the system and edit their employer profile.

- 1. This organization abides by both federal and state Equal Employment Opportunity regulations.
- 2. At no time are job seekers expected to pay a fee or assessed a recruiting service charge when using this recruiting firm's/TPE's services or applying for positions posted on SIUC's recruiting site.
- 3. This organization agrees to post job announcements only for actual positions that are available at the time of posting. Postings will include as specifically as possible, the duties and responsibilities of the position, required education and experience level, and the city, state or country where the job is to be performed. (Many job seekers use location as a search criterion.)
- 4. This organization agrees not to post general or vague announcements, such as "engineers wanted" or "sales opportunities nationwide" on SIUC's recruiting site. Such listings will be removed by the SIUC Career Development Center staff if posted as such.

Signature by the company representative indicates agreement and acceptance of the terms above.
